The Echoing Green.

The sun does arise,
And with happy steps
The merry bells ring
To cheer us as we spring;
The skylark and thrush,
The birds of the bush,
Sing louder around,
To our bells' cheerful sound;
Whilst our sports shall be seen
On the echoing Green.
Old John, with white hair,
Does laugh away care,
Sitting under the oak,
Among the old folk.
They laugh at our play,
And soon they all say,
"Such, such were the days,
When we all - girls and boys
In our youth-time were seen
On the echoing Green.
Till the lark has sung away,
And more can be merry;
The sun does descend,
And our sports have an end,
The tops of their coaches
Water and brimmers
Stand in their nests,
For the birds have sang
No more -"
